A Quinta da Boeira foi construída por um emigrante português regressado do Brasil no início do século XIX, de nome Manuel da Rocha Romariz. Conhecedor do mercado brasileiro, registou-se como exportador de Vinho do Porto em 1850. A marca rapidamente granjeou a consideração e a confiança dos consumidores e distribuidores, expandindo-se para vários mercados internacionais.

Na Quinta em Alijó, na Região Demarcada do Douro, encontram-se as vinhas e a adega. O Centro de Visitas, o Palacete e o Armazém de Vinhos situam-se no centro de Vila Nova de Gaia.

Desenhada para um apreciador de vinhos que privilegia autenticidade com pormenores de inovação, a produção dos vinhos BOEIRA, Vinho do Porto e Douro DOC, respeita a tradição e o seu terroir - "terra de vinhos mais concentrados, com excelente potencial para envelhecimento".

Ao longo dos anos a marca Boeira tem conseguido inovar e recriar garrafas elegantes e distintas, com um legado presente nos quatro cantos do mundo. A maioria dos seus vinhos têm sido medalhados com ouro nos mais prestigiados concursos mundiais de vinhos e conquistado novos apreciadores de Vinho do Porto.

A Quinta da Boeira alia a área de Vinhos à Cultura, aos Eventos e à Hoteleira, proporcionando experiências vínicas e gastronómicas de excelência, desde as vinhas no Douro até ao Palacete e Armazéns centenários em Vila Nova de Gaia.
